ABOUT CASTLE HILL INN

Castle Hill Inn: lovely, majestic and serene. This iconic site sits on its own private 40-acre peninsula at the westernmost point of Aquidneck Island, offering panoramic views of Narragansett Bay. Turn down the tree-lined driveway, pass the private marina, and encounter a world tailor-made for a wedding celebration. From the sea-salt air and sounds of the surf to the landscape's ever-changing hues, our magical 40 acres, legendary service, and wonderful cuisine make for unmatched experiences and unforgettable memories. And it's all just minutes away from the vibrant scene of downtown Newport.

ABOUT DAVID TUTERA

As a globally-lauded wedding & entertaining expert, David Tutera has been hailed as an artistic visionary whose ability, uniquely creative talents and outstanding reputation have made him a tremendous success in the lifestyle arena for over 30 years. David has brought to life weddings, events and celebrations around the world, continuously exceeding the expected with an unmatched levels of inspiration, imagination, and innovation. Together, Castle Hill Inn and David Tutera will produce unforgettable experiences to bring couples' dream celebrations to life.

THE ULTIMATE THREE-DAY WEEKEND

Our 40-acres become your private playground for celebrating your wedding weekend with family and friends, with the whole experience expertly designed by renowned wedding planner and designer, David Tutera. From the rehearsal dinner to the parting brunch, Castle Hill provides a breathtaking backdrop for lasting memories with loved ones, while David brings your dream wedding to life. Our secluded, pristine landscape is a world away from anything expected, and we encourage guests to take full advantage of the property during their stay. Classic New England clambakes, private beach yoga sessions, nostalgic lawn games, gourmet picnics, s'mores by a bonfire and chartered sails from our marina are only a few of the entertainment possibilities; the only limit is the imagination when crafting your ideal stay.
